

SPECIFICATION AMENDMENTS

Replace paragraph [52] with:

[52] In addition to placement into the "My Documents" folder, a "My Shared Spaces" link may be included within a Start Menu presentation 600, such as the presentation displayed in Figure 6. The Start Menu 600 includes a listing of links to at least certain applications that may be launched by the system in a first pane 602 of the graphical display. In addition, a task bar tray 604 and controls are provided in a lower graphical display area ~~606~~ ~~604~~. Finally, a "My Shared Spaces" link is provided as part of a listing on the right hand side of the menu in a display area generally reserved for similar links such as "My Documents," "My Pictures" and "My Music" links. Alternatively, the "My Shared Spaces" link may be included as part of a sub-list such that the user is required to first select the "My Documents" link to access the "My Shared Spaces" folder.
